- 1896 The company is founded by Shozo Kawasaki. His firm will come to be known as Kawasaki Heavy Industries. Over time, the company's principal areas of activity will be shipbuilding, railroad rolling stock, and electrical generating plants Motorcycles will become a small part of this diversified industrial conglomerate.
- Hard work and a dream. That's what established American Kawasaki Motorcycle Corp way back in March of 1966. The first headquarters, an old meat warehouse in Chicago, was a humble beginning for the factory team sent to open the U.S. market.
- Kawasaki motorcycles are manufactured by the Motorcycle & Engine division of Kawasaki Heavy Industries. Kawasaki Aircraft initially manufactured motorcycles under the Meguro name, having bought an ailing motorcycle manufacturer, Meguro Manufacturing with whom they had been in partnership
- Kawasaki motorcycles are known all around the world for their unique designs, advanced technology, and powerful engines. The brand has produced some of the most iconic Japanese motorcycles throughout history. It also has a wide range of motorcycles for daily commutes, commercial use, and leisure, so anyone can enjoy the Kawasaki experience.
- Kawasaki Motors, Ltd. (カワサキモータース株式会社, Kawasaki Mōtāsu Kabushikigaisha) is a Japanese mobility manufacturer that produces motorcycles, all-terrain vehicles, utility vehicles, watercraft, outboard motors, and other electric products
